OVERVIEW

1. PURPOSE

- Provide instruction in the theology and values of GCF.
- Provide instruction in practical Christian living.
- Impart ministry skills
(evangelism, discipleship, prayer, scripture reading, scripture memory)
- Ultimately, we want to make disciples who make disciples who make more disciples.

2. WHAT THE GROUP IS NOT

- It is not primarily designed to help you gain more knowledge (although knowledge is very important).
- It is not primarily designed to be an accountability group (although accountability is very important).
- It does not guarantee you a leadership role at GCF (although we want to identify leaders).
- Discipleship happens as truth is applied through modeling and relationships

3. COMMITMENT

- Each participant commits for one year at a time.
- We will ask participants to sign a commitment card each year.
- Upon completion of the three-year curriculum, we will encourage each participant to lead 4-6 new people in a track for the next year.
(If there is no spiritual reproduction it is not biblical discipleship).

4. WEEKLY GOALS (ABC'S)

- Accountability
- Bible memory
- Content (discuss and apply the readings)

5. WEEKLY SCHEDULE

- The first hour is devoted to accountability/Bible memory.
- The second hour is devoted to applying the reading.

6. YEARLY SCHEDULE

- Meets 27 times a year from Sept through May
- Meets the first three weeks of the month, taking the last week off.
- Meets for two hours each week.

7. SUGGESTED WEEKLY FELLOWSHIP QUESTIONS (PICK TWO PER WEEK)

- What has God been teaching you through Bible reading, preaching, fellowship or other material?
- What are you encouraged about in your walk with God? (Prayers answered, needs met, fruit in marriage or family, evangelism, etc...)
- What attribute of God has been most sweet to you lately?
- How have you been encouraged by being part of a local church?
- Who in your life are you intentionally trying to reach out to?
- What area of your life is causing the most stress? What has it exposed about your heart?
- In what area of your life has God been convicting you? What is he calling you to put off and put on?
- Are there any big decisions in your life where you could use some counsel?
- How would you rate your practice of the spiritual disciplines this week?
- How can we pray for you?

8. TYPICAL WEEKLY READING QUESTIONS

- What was the main point of the reading?
- How is the material going to help you grow in your relationship with God?
- What were your favorite quotes?
- Was there anything you disagreed with in the reading?
- How can you apply this material to your life this week?

9. BIBLE READING

- Daily Bible reading is one of the best ways to grow in godliness.
- To this end, we strongly recommend that your group adopts the Bible reading plan (see the appendix).
- We encourage your group to make daily Bible reading a point of discussion each week.

10. LEADERSHIP

- Who is qualified to lead these groups? Any member of GCF who has completed a GCF discipleship class, affirms the GCF statement of faith for elders and deacons, and has been approved by the GCF pastors.
- What help is available for the leaders? During the last week of the month, throughout the course of the year, the discipleship group leaders will have an opportunity to meet with the other leaders and a pastor for coaching, help, and encouragement.

In order to grow in godliness as a disciple of Jesus Christ, I agree, by the grace of God, to the following commitments:

1. To attend all of the meetings, unless I'm sick, out of town, or facing a genuine crisis. If I can't attend, I will notify the leader of my group and do my best to complete the assignments.
2. To be on time for each meeting. I acknowledge that this group meets each _____ (day of the week) from _____ (start time) until _____ (end time).
3. To participate in personal worship every day. This involves a commitment to read the Bible and pray every day.
4. To complete my homework assignments on time. This includes scripture memory and the assigned readings.
5. To fully participate in group discussions.
6. To protect the confidentiality of my group. This means that I will keep all the information shared in this group confidential.
7. To pray for the non-believers that God has placed in my life.
8. To faithfully attend worship services at church on the Lord's Day.

I understand that this group will meet for one year.

My Faith Journey So Far

Has it ever occurred to you that your life is like a story in the making – a story that matters?

One of the fundamental exercises of life-on-life missional discipleship is taking time to fully consider your life experience thus far; what can be called your faith journey. This exercise facilitates understanding between you and your Discipleship Group regarding the place you now are, in your faith journey. It may be a challenge for you, but just know, that you will see its value the very moment you begin to think about the major events and resulting patterns in your life. It might require just a few moments to complete, or a few weeks, depending on how deeply & intently you begin reflecting upon your life. Here is an approach to accomplish this.

On the next page, you will be provided with an opportunity to sketch a picture of your life story. You will create a line graph that plots how you think about the ebb and flow of your life experience. At each turn in the road, place a label. Think of the labels as chapter titles in your life story. They can represent noteworthy events, turning points, changes in your perceptions of life, experiences, struggles, or victories. What matters most, is that when you view your picture, you can recognize it as an honest depiction of your faith journey so far. Place a star at the point that you believe you became a true follower of Christ. A few examples are provided on the next page.

Blank space for writing spiritual experiences.

This is not a graded assignment but, instead, an opportunity to share with the other members of the group how God has worked in and through us as we have counseled ourselves and each other and learned more about soul care.
